Aalam Deepam Chennai Duathlon 2024

Over 500 athletes from across Chennai gathered at Mayajaal at the early hours of Mar.10, to take part in the annual fundraiser 'Chennai Cyclists (WCCG) Aalam Deepam Chennai Duathlon 2024'

The event by Chennai Cyclists, was held to raise fund for the initiative 'Humans of Cycling'. Apart from the event at Mayajaal, another 300 athletes participated virtually in the event from their respective places of residence.

Held in 5 categories, the event raised about Rs.1.7 lakhs. The Humans of Cycling initiative was launched in the month of August 2020 jointly by Aalam - the Social arm of WCCG and CommuteBiCycle - the commuter initiative of WCCG.

Through this program, beneficiaries whose lives may be made easier with a bicycle are identified and are provided with a sturdy bicycle, free of cost. "This resolves their mobility and transportation difficulties and supports them in their livelihood," said a statement from WCCG. Beneficiaries range from fishmongers, flower wholesalers, domestic help, milk vendors and students who work part time at odd jobs, cobblers, fruit sellers and so on. Till date, 343 bicycles have been donated under the Humans of Cycling program.

"Through the Aalam Deepam Chennai Duathlon 2024, we have raised funds for about 62 bicycles. For the present year we have set ourselves a target of 150 bicycles, which means we still need to raise funds for 88 bicycles," explains the WCCG team.

Apart from monetary contributions, WCCG welcomes the public to donate their bicycles which are not being used, but are in usable condition. WCCG will gladly identify the appropriate beneficiary and act as a conduit between donor and receiver in handing over the donated bicycle. For the uninitiated, WCCG-Chennai Cyclists is one of the largest organised cycling groups in Chennai with over 5000 members. It has 20 chapters across the city that organise daily early morning rides.

▲ Appayya Dikshta Foundation (ADF), Kottivakkam, on Mar.12 made a monetary donation to MN Eye Hospital, Besant Nagar, to conduct free eye surgeries and eye treatments for the needy. On behalf of the foundation, S.Srinivasan, advocate of Madras High Court, presented the cheque. Dr Nishanth Mathivanan, Director of the hospital received the cheque in the presence of Dr Shruthi Nissanth, Paediatric cataract surgeon.

▲ M.Radhakrishnan, a resident of Indira Nagar, completed 90 years on Feb.2. As friends and family arranged a high tea, he requested the invitees to donate towards the renovation of Sanskrit College, instead of gifts to him. The college had borne severe damage during the floods. More than Rs.92000 was collected at the event and the same was donated to the College on Feb.15.

Women's Day >

Celebrating Empowerment

Nivedita Women Development and Welfare Organisation, a pioneering NGO dedicated to empowering underprivileged women and their families, hosted a significant award ceremony commemorating International Women's Day, on Mar.16. The event, held at the Rajalakshmi Kalyana Mandapam in Thiruvannamiyur, witnessed a gathering of esteemed guests, dignitaries and inspiring women from across the community.

The ceremony, graced by distinguished chief guests and special guests, spotlighted the remarkable contributions of Women Self Help Groups (SHGs) in fostering community empowerment. The event served as an enlightening platform, with officers from Government Women ITI Guindy and Government ITI Guindy shedding light on free courses available immediately after completing 8th grade and 10th grade, of which many were previously unaware. They detailed the comprehensive benefits, including free training, textbooks, two sets of uniforms, footwear, transportation via train and bus passes, a stipend ranging from Rs.750 to 1000 per month, and even provision of a free bicycle. This informative session proved to be immensely beneficial to all participants, providing them with valuable insights into opportunities for skill development and education.

In a poignant gesture, 52 women SHGs were honoured for their unwavering dedication, with 30 groups awarded by the chief guests for their remarkable 20-year journey; 22 groups were celebrated for their commendable 15-year service and were graciously presented with prizes by the esteemed guests. The recognition underscored their resilience, perseverance, and steadfast commitment to societal upliftment.

Presiding over the ceremony, Samyuktha Shalini,

President of Nivedita Women Development and Welfare Organisation, expressed gratitude for the overwhelming support. The event also featured captivating cultural performances showcasing the talents of women within the communities.

The vote of thanks was delivered by V.R.Vijayamma, Secretary of Nivedita Women Development & Welfare Organisation, expressing gratitude on behalf of the organisation for the support and participation in the event.

Women's day celebration at Sankara School

Sri Sankara Matriculation Higher Secondary School, as a part of Women's Day celebrations, trained their pre-primary teachers, in association with Madras Dyslexia Association (MDA), on Mar.9. This programme, conducted by Jyothi Shah, focused on how to deal with physical, emotional, social, sensory, language and cognitive issues of the kids.

"The school always sets a good example, by teaching the students the value of tradition and helping them to balance their lifestyle with modern technology," said the school.

Another event organised by the school was by Meenakshi Arakatalai and Deepam Madhar Sangam, who conducted a quiz competition on the epics - Ramayana and Mahabharatha. The first 3 toppers were awarded 10 gms, 5 gms and 3 gms of silver respectively; Consolation prizes for 5 students and prizes for 4 participants.

▲ Sparrows, once a ubiquitous sight in our city, have sadly dwindled in numbers due to various environmental challenges. The team 'Sparrow Ambassadors' are coming together to change that narrative. Over the next 10 weeks, they will be distributing 1000 sparrow homes throughout the Kottivakkam neighbourhood, ensuring ample nesting spaces for our feathered friends. For details contact 99401 42349.

A monumental landmark structure of the neighbourhood - Indra Nagar Water Tank gives way for the Phase II Corridor of the Chennai Metro Rail. The half a century old tank, which lent it's name to the area, is being brought down, starting March 22.

The differently-abled and those above 85 years can vote by Post

For this upcoming Lok Sabha Elections, senior citizens above 85 years and the differently-abled, living within Greater Chennai Corporation limits can cast their votes from home through post, by submitting the duly filled Form 12 D.

The forms must be submitted on or before Mar.25 to the duly appointed officer in the polling station level officers / the Election Commission or the Assistant Election Commission Officer office in their area.

Dr J. Radhakrishnan, IAS, Greater Chennai Corporation Commissioner, on Mar.20, said that provisions have been made to vote by post in 16 assembly constituencies including 3 Lok Sabha constituencies, to avoid difficulties for senior citizens and persons with disability in going to the polling station and voting.

Polling Station Officers will personally visit the residences of the differently abled voters and voters above 85 years of age, with Form 12D and voter list.

When the officers visit the residence of the voters, they are asked to cooperate by giving their consent after reading the form (they can also request the officers to read out the form).

The voters should also submit proof of identity, if requested. As per the final electoral roll published on Jan.22, the total number of voters is 39,01,167. Out of the total number of voters, it is estimated that there are 11,369 differently-abled voters and 63,751 voters above the age of 85 years.

If voters with disabilities and voters above 85 years of age have any doubts and complaints regarding postal voting, they can contact Chennai District Election Office on 24 hours toll-free numbers 1950 and 1800 425 7012.

Sports Day at Kidzee

The vibrant 7th annual Sports Day event hosted by Kidzee Kannappa Nagar and Valmiki Nagar branches was truly remarkable.

The festivities commenced with the rendition of the Tamizh Thaaai Vazthu. Ranjani Sankaran, IAS, the chief guest of the event delivered an insightful speech on parenting tips in the digital age. A standout moment was the unique declaration of the sports meet, marked by the release of doves and colourful balloons, accompanied by the joyous cheers of children. The torch-bearing session by Senior KG children of Kannappa Nagar and Valmiki Nagar was remarkable. The highlight of the event was the awe-inspiring march past, leaving parents and spectators in sheer admiration. From the tiny tots of Play Group and Nursery to the spirited performers of Junior and Senior KG, each class showcased remarkable discipline and coordination through meticulously choreographed drills. The sports day extended with engaging activities such as parent games, parent-child games, and the exhilarating tug of war, fostering a sense of community and shared joy. For more information, contact 98843 00080, 98842 00080.
