A special event for special children

The Thursday Ladies Club held Sports Day for mentally challenged children on Sep.19 at Youth Hostel, Indira Nagar. Children from ages 7 to 14 participated.

Fifty lively and enthusiastic students from five institutions arrived, accompanied by their teachers and caregivers. With beaming smiles and shining eyes, they took part in the games, which required only minimal skill levels. The games included Stringing the Beads, Passing the Parcel and Picking Pebbles from coloured water for the Juniors, and Traversing Cones, Frog Race and Gathering Potatoes for the Seniors.

"The children were obviously thrilled as they played the games and laughed as they watched others taking part in their races. It was such a heart-warming sight to see their bright, smiling faces holding their trophies and prizes," said the club. The Lucky Dip added to their sense of excitement.

The participating schools were Sri Arunodayam (Kolathur), Mithra Rehabilitation Centre (Anna Nagar), Aram Home For Special Children (Surapet), Jayam Special School (Padi) and Andhra Mahila Sabha (RA Puram).

All the children were given participation gifts. Winners received crowns, medals and special prizes. Each institution was also given a monetary donation from the Thursday Ladies Charitable Trust.

Carnival for children by The Shakespeare Millenium Club

The Shakespeare Millenium Club, The Literary Arm of PRICE, organised a carnival for about 100 children from Avvai Home, Fathima Home and Anjuman Himayat Home, on Sept.22 at Avvai Home.

The major attractions - the Arabian Huts, Bubble House and the Horse-drawn carriage stood ready awaiting the eager young ones. The Turkish ice cream stall was fun when the children were challenged to grasp the ice cream from the vendor who was skilfully dodging them.

The decor included colourful balloon arches placed at vantage points making the space a rain-bow garden. Mounted posters with pictures of Shakespeare and fairy tale characters tagged with apt quotes was a knowledge module, which everyone looked at with awe. An innovative quiz prepared by Jamuna Sridharan with a clever twist to it was informative.

The Carnival was inaugurated by V. Susheela, Director of Avvai Home, and presided over by Mr. Selvaraj, IAS, (retd.), and graced by Dr. Kalyani Anbuchelvan.

The Carnival was majorly sponsored by Swapna Sridharan, MD,

PRICE. Dr. Samundi Sankari, Chairman of Srushti Hospitals, gave away a goodie bag, filled with stationery items, to each child. Bringing smiles to the faces of young children is indeed a treasured moment for the club.

Encroachment in full swing

Greater Corporation of Chennai appears to have baptised vendors taking over the platform in 2nd Avenue, Besant Nagar, facilitating the well-oiled encroachment industry. What is puzzling is how the earmarked space will be enough to do business without spilling over several yards around! Be that as it may, GCC should at least leave the corner of 7th Avenue and 2nd Avenue free for pedestrians, especially senior citizens, to negotiate this dangerous area safely, by foot.

- Rangaswami Gopalan, Besant Nagar.

Sewage issues

We have been residents of Krishnamachari Avenue, Adyar, for 45 years. After the construction of our houses in the 1970s, applications for sewage connection were made and were duly approved by corporation authorities, based on road man-hole level.

The flow of sewage was free in the early years. The manholes are the same. Things have changed a lot in 50 years. All the road manholes are always full. Sewage is stagnant and there is mosquito breeding. If Jet Rodder is engaged periodically, this problem can be minimised. We request Metro Water to send a jet rodder and do what is needed.

- Residents of Krishnamachari Avenue, Adyar.

Cleanliness should start at temples

Apropos of the letter to the editor by Radha Gopalakrishnan (Adyar Times, dated Sep.22) on the lack of cleanliness around Besant Nagar's place of worship, local NGOs can sponsor a few specially-coloured smaller size bins with messages and install these nearby entrances of a few key worship places with arrangements with Urbaser Sumeet staff to empty these separately.

This way, children visiting here will cultivate the habit of depositing garbage into bins only. More parents too will adhere to disposing of domestic garbage to make the city healthier and liveable.

- K. Bharath Kumar, Gandhi Nagar.

Thanking prompt action

I would like to place on record the prompt action taken by JE (Street Lights) of Indira Nagar ward. On two occasions recently I complained on WhatsApp about lights not working and the poor wiring. On both occasions, they responded promptly and rectified the problem.

I would like to thank the concerned team. I hope they continue their good work and other departments emulate them.

- V. Harihara Subramanian, Indira Nagar.
