Chennai police on Friday (January 30) recovered the body of the wife of a slain Bihar migrant worker from the Perungudi dump yard, three days after the crime came to light, says a press release issued by the Greater Chennai Police (GCP).

The woman's body was found in a highly decomposed state and is suspected to have been buried in the dump yard since January 26, police said.

The case surfaced on the morning of January 26, when police attached to the J2 Adyar Police Station were alerted about blood oozing from a gunny bag found near a Honda showroom on 1st Avenue, Indira Nagar. A male body with severe head injuries was recovered and later identified as Gaurav Kumar, a native of Sheikhpura district, Bihar, who had recently migrated to Chennai in search of employment with his wife and their two-year-old son.

Special police teams were formed to investigate the incident. During the probe, police arrested Satyendar alias Santosh Kumar (30), a day-time watchman at the Institute of Chemical Technology, Kotturpuram, along with Lalit Yadav (40), a night-time watchman at the same institution, and Vikash Kumar (24), a watchman at an apartment complex in Kottivakkam.

Police said that on the night of January 24, the accused and the deceased consumed alcohol together on the fourth floor of a building inside the college campus where Gaurav Kumar and his family were staying. A quarrel reportedly broke out during the gathering, following which the three accused allegedly assaulted Gaurav Kumar, his wife, and their minor son using their hands and iron rods, killing all three.

The accused later wrapped the bodies in gunny bags and disposed of them at different locations. The body of the two-year-old child was recovered earlier from the Buckingham Canal near Madhya Kailash.

Police said the body of Gaurav Kumar's wife had been thrown into a garbage bin near Taramani Modern Bread and subsequently transported to the Perungudi dump yard. Officials revealed that nearly 500 truckloads of garbage had been dumped at the site after the murder, complicating the search operation. Police coordinated with sanitation workers and garbage truck drivers to identify the probable dumping area, following which the body was recovered.

The three accused have been remanded in judicial custody. The Greater Chennai Police stated that efforts are underway to file the charge sheet at the earliest and ensure maximum punishment under the law.

The new Madhya Kailash flyover promises major traffic relief

Commuters in the city can expect significant relief as the long-awaited Madhya Kailash Flyover at Adyar is set to be opened this week, according to a statement issued by officials.

The 650-metre L-shaped flyover, constructed at a cost of Rs.60 crore, is designed as a three-lane, unidirectional corridor providing a signal-free connection between Sardar Patel Road and Rajiv Gandhi Salai (OMR). Once operational, it is expected to substantially ease congestion at one of Chennai's busiest traffic junctions, benefiting commuters travelling between Adyar, Guindy and the OMR IT corridor.

The flyover has been built with a durable concrete topping and includes a dedicated drainage system aimed at preventing waterlogging during the monsoon season. Streetlight installation is currently underway, while final painting and finishing works are progressing on the OMR side, officials added. Commuters and locals believe the new infrastructure will improve average travel speeds, reduce signal wait times, and enhance overall traffic flow in the southern parts of the city.

The Madhya Kailash Flyover is expected to play a crucial role in easing daily commutes and supporting Chennai's growing traffic demands.

When milestones are reached, journeys continue with greater gusto

Marking 25 years of literary excellence, the Chennai Poets' Circle (CPC) held its annual seminar at the TAG Auditorium, Ramakrishna Mission School. The milestone event drew over 60 poets from across India, including delegates from Maharashtra, Telangana, West Bengal, Kerala, and Karnataka. The highlight of the day was the launch of Efflorescence 2025, the 25th-anniversary anthology featuring 143 poets ranging in age from nine to over 80. The collection was released by chief guest Dr. K. Ganesh, Former Head of English at Madras Christian College.

In his keynote address, Dr. Ganesh noted how the "chutneyfication" of the language - blending local flavours with English - has evolved into a globally respected art form. The seminar also saw the launch of 'In a Cage and Beyond', a new collection by Nagpur-based poet Dr. Ratnakar D. Bhelkar. Chairing the sessions were CPC founders Dr. M. Thirumeni and Dr. S. Kannan, who discussed the role of 'poetic consciousness' in the age of AI.

The day concluded with an evocative poetry-reading session anchored by Secretary Hema Ravi and a research paper presentation by Dr. Debdoot Mukherjee. Poets interested in CPC's future activities may contact chennaipoetscircle@gmail.com.

Dream India hosts educational tour for 120 rural students in Chennai

On January 24, Dream India, Adyar, organised an impactful educational tour for 120 students from government high schools in Thammanur, Seethanancheri, Vishar, and Periyantham. The initiative aimed to provide rural children with exposure to urban infrastructure, advanced technology, and career opportunities.

The day began with an exciting CMRL metro ride from Koyambedu to the Airport, followed by an exploratory visit to the Anna Centenary Library to learn about its modern facilities. The students then enjoyed an immersive solar system and 3D shows at the Birla Planetarium.

A key highlight was the visit to Patterns Cognitive, a Chennai-based machine learning firm, where professionals held career guidance sessions and fulfilled the children's wish list by distributing personalised gifts. The tour concluded with a visit to Elliot's Beach, leaving the children inspired and motivated.

Rs.1.9 lakh fine collected in Chennai beaches

The Greater Chennai Corporation (GCC) has collected a fine of Rs.1,90,500 from 241 individuals for violating cleanliness norms and dumping waste on major city beaches, including Marina and Besant Nagar.

To improve and maintain beach areas for public recreation, the civic body has intensified sanitation measures across the coastline. Daily cleaning operations are being carried out in Marina, Besant Nagar, Thiruvanmiyur, Palavakkam, Neelankarai, Akkarai and Tiruvottiyur beaches.

In view of the Pongal festival and the expected surge in visitors, the GCC deployed additional personnel and machinery from Jan.14. Between January 14 and 17, a total of 233.88 metric tonnes of solid waste was cleared from the beaches.

Under the Solid Waste Management Rules, 2016, dumping of garbage, plastic waste, food waste or any other refuse in public places and on beaches is strictly prohibited. Despite repeated awareness campaigns, several violations were recorded. Between Jan.15 and 17, fines of up to Rs.5,000 were imposed on individuals and shop owners found dumping waste indiscriminately. The penalties were enforced through 26 special monitoring teams deployed across key beach locations.

● Marina: 8 monitoring teams deployed; 82 violators fined; Rs.41,500 collected;

● Elliot's and Thiruvanmiyur: 8 monitoring teams deployed; 69 violators fined; Rs.65,300 collected;

● Palavakkam: 4 monitoring teams deployed; 49 violators fined; Rs.46,500 collected;

● Injambakkam and Akkarai: 4 monitoring teams deployed; 24 violators fined and Rs.19,000 collected.

● Thiruvotriyur: 2 monitoring teams deployed; 17 violators fined and Rs.18,200 collected.

The Corporation has appealed to the public and tourists to cooperate by disposing of waste only in designated bins and helping keep Chennai's beaches clean and hygienic.

Walkathon and Marathon

As part of its landmark Golden Jubilee celebrations, the Sri Kapaleeswarar Nagar Residents Welfare Association (SKNRWA) organised a Community Walkathon and Marathon on Jan. 25. The event, themed 'Smiles After the Miles', successfully integrated fitness with vital public health advocacy, specifically targeting dengue awareness. Despite intermittent rainfall, the event saw a massive turnout of nearly 400 participants, ranging from young children to senior citizens and professional runners.

The run was flagged off by V. P. Senthil Kumar, a prominent member of Chennai Runners and former Race Director of the Chennai Marathon. Participants ran between 2 km and 5 km routes spanning the local colony streets and a stretch of the East Coast Road.

Prior to the race, ProMed Hospital conducted comprehensive health screenings. Leading up to the event, SKNRWA partnered with GCC for a door-to-door dengue prevention campaign. The initiative was bolstered by a lively Zumba session led by ZIN E.Sridharan.

▲ One of the kolams drawn by the residents of Gyan Darshan, Vannanthurai, celebrating Pongal.

◀ Vibrant artistry took over Thiruvanmiyur Beach Road as the East Coast Beach Walkers Association (ECBWA) and Nivedita Women Development & Welfare Organisation hosted a collaborative Kolam contest recently. Nearly 40 contestants transformed the stretch into a festive canvas of divine patterns and innovative 3D designs. Six winners were given prizes by ARKA Ravindran (Chairman, OM Serma Enterprises), with gifts sponsored by Venus Hot Water Professionals and Senior Advocate Jagadeesan.

Residents and community organisers in the Adyar area are invited to alert this newspaper to events in your area.

Casagrand launches Non-Profit Diagnostic Centre in Besant Nagar

Leading real estate developer Casagrand has inaugurated the Casagrand Foundation Diagnostic Centre in Besant Nagar. Launched as a not-for-profit initiative, the facility provides over 100 essential diagnostic services and advanced screenings at approximately one-third of the market price, with tests starting as low as Rs.50.

Located opposite the Ellaiyamman temple in Sastri Nagar, the state-of-the-art centre is designed to support the wider community and construction workers who often face prohibitive medical costs. The facility is equipped with a fully automated laboratory and advanced imaging technology, offering services such as digital X-rays, CT scans, ECGs, and master health check-ups, alongside specialised packages for diabetes and women's health.

Arun Mn, Founder and Managing Director of Casagrand, stated that the initiative was born from a responsibility to bridge the gap between expensive private diagnostics and long waiting periods at government centres. Dressed in vibrant ethnic attire, the children participated in the ritual of cooking Pongal in clay pots, gaining hands-on insight into the significance of the harvest festival. A key highlight of the event was a traditional bullock cart ride, offering the urban youngsters a rare glimpse into rural life. To foster agricultural awareness, students also dressed as farmers, paying tribute to the hard work of the farming community.

Basant Panchami Day is the celebration of the auspicious occasion of onset of Spring season. It is celebrated throughout the country notably in North India where it is a Cultural Festival.

The Ra-Dha-Sva-Aa-Mi Faith, with its headquarters at Dayalbagh, Agra, commemorates this occasion on a grand scale annually, because it heralds a New Year for them. This year it was celebrated on 23rd January.

This year's activities included visit of the Present Sant Satguru of Ra-Dha-Sva-Aa-Mi Faith, Prof. Prem Saran Satsangi Sahab to various residential colonies and institutions attached to Dayalbagh Ashram, participation of children from the age group of 3 weeks to 12 years in enchanting cultural presentations displaying Superhumane qualities, physical training exercises and self-defence demonstrations, conducted in a highly disciplined and coordinated manner, reflecting the holistic approach to physical, moral and spiritual development fostered at Dayalbagh.

Also, Baby Show, Fancy Dress Show, gymnastics displays and sports events were organized. Decorative lighting was done at Dayalbagh and Satsang Colonies across India and abroad.

Thus, the celebrations of Basant Panchami 2026 at Dayalbagh embodied a harmonious blend of spiritual devotion, disciplined collective living and joyous cultural expression.

Celebrations in Tamil Nadu

In Tamil Nadu, Basant was celebrated with great enthusiasm, and fervour in all the 13 Branches falling under the Tamil Radhasoami Satsang Association. Outdoor and Indoor activities were conducted for all age Groups.

Fine for illegal tree cutting

As part of its ongoing mission to expand and protect the city's green cover, the Greater Chennai Corporation (GCC) has intensified enforcement against the unauthorised cutting of trees. On Jan.22, the civic body imposed a total fine of Rs.1.75 lakh, including a Rs.1 lakh penalty on one individual for illegal tree felling and Rs.15,000 each on five others for unauthorised pruning of branches. To streamline tree management services - such as branch removal, clearing dried trees, or transplanting - the GCC has transitioned to a fully digital application process. Since Jan.12, residents are no longer required to apply directly to the Forest Department. Instead, all requests must be submitted via the 'Green Committee Application' portal on the GCC website (chennaicorporation.gov.in) or through the Namma Chennai App.

• Verification Process: Applications are reviewed via field inspections by GCC Park Superintendents, social activists, and Forest Department officials. Status updates are sent to applicants via SMS.

• Strict Penalties: Unauthorised felling of trees attracts a fine of Rs.1 lakh. Cutting branches, nailing advertisement boards to trees, or wrapping decorative lights around trunks without permission incurs a fine of Rs.15,000.

• Reporting Violations: Citizens can report illegal tree cutting or branch removal by dialling the GCC helpline at 1913.

The Corporation urges the public to utilise the official digital platforms for all tree-related services and warns against any unauthorised interference with the city's green assets.
