In an age dominated by digital screens, the enduring presence of the Murugan Lending Library stands as a testament to the timeless charm of books and the habit of reading. Located in Adyar, this neighbourhood library has been nurturing the habit of reading for over four decades.

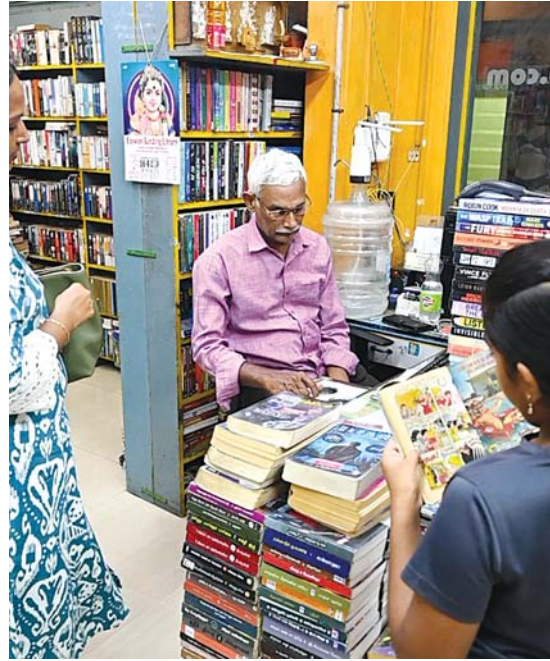

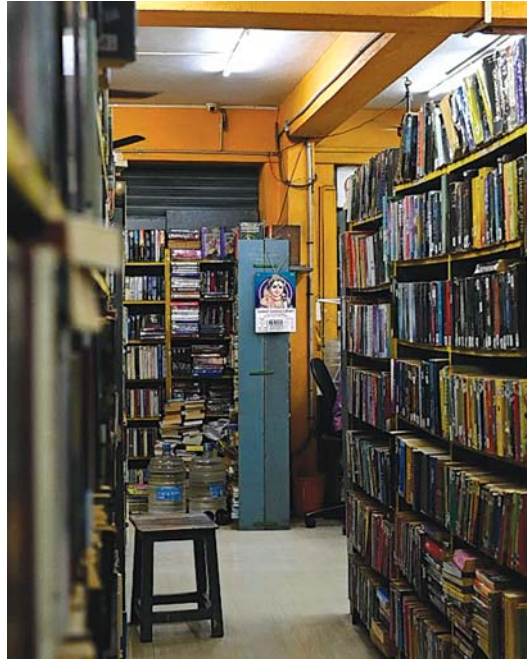

An extension of the well-known Eswari Lending Library network, the Murugan branch continues to attract a large slice of the community of readers.

With a simple lifetime membership model, readers can join by paying a refundable deposit of Rs.500. Books are then issued on a rental basis, with a reading period of 15 to 20 days.

The library houses a diverse collection catering to varied tastes. While Tamil literature holds a special place on the shelves, nearly 80% of the collection comprises English and other language titles. Popular authors such as Jeffrey Archer, Sidney Sheldon, Michael Crichton, James Patterson, and Dan Brown are readily available, making it a favourite among fiction enthusiasts.

Over the years, the library has played a quiet yet meaningful role in shaping lives. Regular patrons recall how reading here contributed to improving their language skills, sharpening focus, and broadening their perspectives.

Many former student members, now well-settled in their careers, return with their families, reminiscing about the library's impact on their journey.

Many readers who were members at the spring of life as students are members even now in the winter of their lives as super senior citizens. That is the magic of this library.

"Reading is often seen as just a hobby, but it is much more than that," says the library's representative. Beyond leisure, it fosters learning, enhances English proficiency, and builds concentration.

The library remains accessible to the public from 10 am to 8.30 pm on weekdays, and from 10 am to 1 pm on Sundays. At 2, Gokul Arcade, Sardar Patel Road, Baktavatsalm Nagar, Adyar. Ph : 044 4211 7061. As Chennai continues to evolve, spaces like Murugan Lending Library quietly preserve the culture of reading, one book at a time.

State records historic voter turnout in 2026 Assembly Elections

Tamil Nadu has achieved a significant milestone in its democratic history, recording its highest-ever voter turnout since Independence, in the 2026 Legislative Assembly elections. According to the Election Commission of India, the State registered an impressive overall polling percentage of 84.69%.

This surpasses the previous record of 78.29% set during the 2011 Assembly elections. Participation across gender demographics was notable, with women leading at 85.76%, followed by men at 83.57%, reflecting a strong and inclusive voter turnout.

The elections were conducted in a single phase across all 234 Assembly constituencies. In Chennai, the overall voter turnout stood at 83.74%. Among constituencies, Velachery recorded 84.50%, while Sholinganallur saw 80.46% participation. The highest turnout in the city was registered in Dr. Radhakrishnan Nagar (90.60%), followed by Perambur (89.73%), while Mylapore recorded the lowest at 74.89%.

The smooth conduct of polling was supported by several voter-friendly initiatives introduced by the Election Commission. These included the use of colour photographs of candidates on EVM ballot units, the implementation of a Mobile Deposit Facility (MDF) for phones, and the distribution of redesigned, easy-to-read Voter Information Slips (VIS). Additionally, the number of electors per polling station was capped at 1,200 to reduce crowding and ensure a more efficient voting experience.

The record turnout underscores a growing awareness and active participation among voters, reinforcing Tamil Nadu's strong commitment to the democratic process.

Kotturpuram community hosts medical camp and sustainability drive

Residents of 'Clover by The River' organised a dual-impact community event on Apr.5, combining health services for staff with a massive decluttering drive. In collaboration with the Rotary Club of Madras Temple City and IWC Chennai Symphony, a medical camp provided eye, dental, and general check-ups for over 100 workers, including drivers, domestic help, and maintenance staff. Specialised screenings, such as mammograms and pap smears, were also offered to women.

Simultaneously, the Clover Green Team led its 3rd annual decluttering initiative, collecting over 1,000 kg of pre-loved books, clothes, and household items from 300 homes. After the maintenance staff selected items they needed, the rest were handed to Wasted 360 for recycling and repurposing.

▲ ISKCON Chennai at ECR witnessed a massive turnout of students and young professionals for the launch of 'Bhajan Clubbing' on Apr.14. The event, held at the temple premises, blended traditional kirtan with high-energy musical arrangements, offering a modern spiritual platform for the city's youth.

▲ The Rotary Club of Chennai Towers (District 3233) hosted its annual Vocational Excellence Awards on Mar.26, where five distinguished individuals were recognised for their outstanding contributions to society: Besant Nagar resident Padma Shri Leela Samson was awarded the Lifetime Achievement award for her legendary career and influence in Indian performing arts. Other awardees included Nimal Raghavan (Lake Man of India), S.Padma (conservancy worker), Selvakumar (Tailor Bro), and N. Silambarasan (Silambam Silambu).

▲ Residents of Prime Terrace on L.B. Road hosted a ceremony on Apr.11 to honour domestic staff who have served the community for over 20 years. Cooks, drivers, and cleaning assistants, celebrated as 'Family Assistants', received certificates of appreciation and tokens of gratitude for their two decades of loyalty. The apartment stated that the initiative aimed to recognise the vital, behind-the-scenes support these individuals provide to local families.

Teachers train as educators on Menstrual Hygiene

▲ Samskrita Bharati, Adyar, successfully concluded its 10-day children's language camp with a closing ceremony on Mar.27 at K.S.N. Senior Secondary School, Thiruvaniyur. Presided over by school Principal Prabha Prakash, and Dr. Anuradha Shivakumar, the event saw 20 children showcase their proficiency in Samskritam through various performances. Following this success, fresh registrations for the Balageervani online program is now open. This initiative currently supports over 500 students aged 7 to 12 through a network of 50 volunteers. Parents interested in enrolling their children for the upcoming session may contact 99405 44164 for further details.

Organisation 'Slum Soccer' (Krida Vikas Sanstha) conducted a specialised Menstrual Hygiene Management workshop in Adyar on Apr.18, where they trained 20 educators from regional schools, equipping them with the pedagogical tools and physiological knowledge needed to foster period-friendly learning environments.

Led by Project Manager Mahima Barse, the sessions focused on debunking cultural myths and promoting hygienic practices. Local coordinators Noor Basha and Rizwana Farheen ensured that the training addressed the community's specific social needs.

The event was graced by chief guest Kalyananthy Satchithanatham, a prominent educationist and member of the Tamil Nadu Widows and Destitute Women Welfare Board, who highlighted the critical role of institutional support in student health. The workshop concluded with certificates being distributed to all participants, establishing them as master trainers tasked with normalising menstrual health conversations and ensuring that no student's education is disrupted by biological factors.

Sankara Matriculation hosts Dynamic Science and Innovation Fest

Sri Sankara Matriculation Higher Secondary School recently held a vibrant Science Fest, featuring innovative working models in Physics, Chemistry, and Biology. A major highlight was the Robotics department's display, where students showcased Virtual Reality (VR) projects and discussed the role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in India's development.

The event integrated diverse disciplines, with the Mathematics department presenting real-world applications and the Music Department demonstrating the significance of various instruments. The festival also fostered community spirit through a KG puppet show and entrepreneurship stalls where parents exhibited their handicrafts and culinary skills. Guests and parents praised the exhibition for its immersive, hands-on approach to learning.

▲ The 1971 Statistics batch of Madras Christian College gathered at Hotel Matsya, Adyar, to celebrate 55 years of friendship. The reunion brought together alumni and their spouses for an afternoon of nostalgia, featuring a ceremonial cake cutting and the singing of friendship songs. Senior alumnus R. Gopinath attended as the chief guest. Despite most members being over 71, the group shared a youthful spirit as they reminisced about their college days.

Dream India Trust invites applications for scholarships

The 'Education for All' project provides financial support ranging from Rs.15,000 to Rs.25,000 per year, with selection based on academic performance and need. Priority will be given to students from government and rural schools, though applicants from private schools with a single parent or guardian are also eligible.

Selected candidates will receive ongoing mentorship throughout their academic course. Interested students can submit their applications online at <https://www.dreamindia.org/scholarship/>. WhatsApp: 99406 75570.

Mental wellness App

Aiming to combat shrinking attention spans, OruCupOxygen has launched a first-of-its-kind mental wellness app designed as a "mental gym" for the modern mind. Founded by Adyarite Santosh Kumar and Sa Ki, the platform moves away from addictive algorithms and ads, offering a one-click experience focused on three pillars: focus, sleep, and awareness.

Unlike traditional tools, the app features structured focus pods - short, cognitive exercises that cannot be binged, encouraging sustainable habit-building over passive consumption. The launch was marked by 'Oru Cup Focus', an immersive sensory event held on Apr.10 and 11 at Pagir, Thiruvanniyur. Participants engaged in private, 60-minute sessions designed to assess their attention across all five senses in a distraction-free environment.

"We are building a routine to help people regain control over their attention," said Co-founder Santosh Kumar. The app targets individuals navigating digitally saturated lifestyles, positioning mental care as a daily habit as essential as physical fitness.

Residents can now access the platform's Focus Pods and ambient sleep soundscapes online. For more information and to join the no-scroll movement, visit orucupoxygen.com.

Civic apathy in Besant Nagar: A Tale of 2nd Avenue and 8th Cross Street

V. Ravi Narayanan, 12th Cross Street, Besant Nagar

Besant Nagar's 2nd Avenue has increasingly become an eyesore for several reasons. Footpaths are encroached upon by unauthorised vendors, customers of established eateries spill over onto pedestrian spaces, and sections are occupied by the homeless. Adding to this is the indiscriminate parking of four-wheelers, particularly during evenings and weekends. The result: an 80-foot-wide road has effectively been reduced to a narrow two-way lane.

2nd Avenue appears to have become a guinea pig in the hands of the Greater Chennai Corporation (GCC) and the State Government. Over the years, it has seen a series of experiments — from a cycle track to being part of a 'Health walk', and now a 'Roadside Permitted Vending Zone'. A few months ago, stainless steel vending cubicles were installed, but not a single one appears to be functional. Now, the GCC is reportedly planning to construct permanent structures near GOCH Park.

Instead of addressing the core issue — clearing encroachments and restoring proper pedestrian pathways, the civic body itself seems to be adding to the congestion. One is left wondering whether such ill-conceived initiatives will ever give way to practical solutions, or whether 2nd Avenue will be allowed to deteriorate further.

As the saying goes, a picture is worth a thousand words, and the situation here speaks volumes about the state of civic maintenance. This stretch has effectively become a no-man's land, with one side belonging to the CMWSSB and the other being a vacant plot. The outcome is predictable: the road has turned into a dumping yard for all kinds of solid waste, while the opposite side is used for parking abandoned vehicles.

Despite repeated complaints, little action has been taken. It is learnt that even contract staff have been dumping debris here, citing unofficial approval. This arrangement appears to have the tacit blessings of the authorities, raising serious concerns about accountability.

Residents in the adjoining areas are left to ask a simple question: would the GCC allow such a situation to persist if senior officials or political representatives resided here? The vacant plot on the northern side belongs to a prominent real estate developer. Will the approach change only when commercial interests come into play?

Public infrastructure cannot be reduced to experimental grounds or treated as a dumping zone. The need of the hour is clear: remove encroachments, restore pedestrian rights, and ensure responsible waste management.

Until then, residents of Besant Nagar can only watch as civic apathy continues to erode the quality of life in their neighbourhood.

Unprofessional conduct by sewer maintenance workers

■ On Mar.9, while cleaning work in Venkatesapuram, Kottivakam (Zone 14, Ward 181), was underway near house No. 4/254, a section of the sewer collapsed. When the homeowner, M. Sangeetha, questioned the workers about the damage and the lack of prior notice, the staff reportedly responded with inappropriate language and indifference.

Despite the residents' distress over the damaged infrastructure, the authorities have shown no accountability. It is disappointing to see such a lack of basic courtesy from public service workers. I urge the Greater Chennai Corporation to ensure that officials treat taxpayers with respect.

- Durai Kadirvel, Social Activist, Kottivakam.

Cattle Menace

■ There is a significant cattle menace in the Thiruvanniyur Mada streets. Many cattle roam freely in the West Tank and North/East Mada streets during the morning and evening, especially near the Pavai Meru platform and in front of the Marundeeswarar temple. This is a major hindrance to all pedestrians.

I am a victim of this cattle menace. Last Tuesday morning, while I was returning from the Marundeeswarar temple, a bull was running back and forth from south to north on West Tank Street as a man attempted to catch it. As I was walking through West Tank Street near the Amarabharathi Kalyana Mandapam, the bull charged toward me. When it approached, I fell, resulting in injuries to my hip, right elbow, and head.

I am currently recovering from these injuries. I request the concerned Greater Chennai Corporation authorities to take immediate steps to stop this cattle menace in the Mada streets to ensure the safety of citizens.

- A. P. Subramanian, Thiruvanniyur.

A corporation market

■ A market for small farmers to sell vegetables, fruits, flowers, and other agricultural products is needed in the Adyar area, as the street vendor zone scheme has been unsuccessful.

The market will benefit residents by providing fresh farm products; it will also serve nearby areas while providing the Greater Chennai Corporation with a source of revenue.

Further, the authorities can take strong steps to remove unauthorised street shops that have encroached on platforms not earmarked for street vending, which are causing inconvenience to pedestrians.

- B. Ramesh Kumar, Adyar.

Lift license

■ Despite tall claims by the authorities, the three-year license renewal for domestic lifts remains in the clutches of middlemen and corrupt officials.

We pay the required fees plus about half of that amount as a bribe just to enable the portal to file the challan. Despite this, we always face enormous delays in receiving the renewal copy. This leads to a cascading effect, requiring us to bribe the insurance clerk every year to obtain the mandatory lift insurance.

This is a problem faced by all apartment owners during every cycle or year. We cannot directly confront the officials for fear that certification will be withdrawn on flimsy grounds.

I am voicing this appeal after observing this sort of harassment for two cycles.

- Name withheld on request.

Swapping plastic for cloth at Elliot's Beach

■ Two street fruit and vegetable vendors sell at the entrance of 32nd Cross Street on Beach Road. To minimise and discourage the usage of plastic carry bags, I gave around 25 cloth bags to the vegetable vendor, which I had gathered from my home over a period of time from marriages and other functions.

The cloth bags are to be used instead of plastic bags. These regular customers have to return them during their next visit. At that time, they should bring along their own cloth bags from home for their purchases.

I expect this mechanism to encourage the general public to carry and use cloth bags and also motivate them to donate unused, excess cloth bags to various vendors in a similar way. At the end of the day, "nothing is impossible," as I strongly believe.

- K. R. Chandrasekaran, Besant Nagar.

Abandoned deities

■ Since the New Year, I am seeing a lot of calendars with photos of deities abandoned at places like under trees, under a lamp post etc. It feels like we are abandoning the gods after our work is done or after a year. Why buy such calendars when we know that we will be abandoning them? Alternatively, they can be given away to recyclers who will make better use of them.

Adyar Times has been publishing about initiatives like various waste collection drives and Udvassana poojas (for Hindu religious items) as and when they are conducted in the neighbourhood. Readers can probably wait for such events to dispose of such items.

- Ranjani, Indira Nagar.

This battered footpath on Besant Nagar Velankanni Church Road, is being used for parking cars and two-wheelers. The concerned authorities need to repair the road and make it available to commuters.
- N.Mahadevan, Vannanthurai.

This broad pavement in Indra Nagar is flooded with two-wheelers and eateries. One hopes pavements will be for pedestrians someday.

The photo here is of Malavya Avenue in Thiruvanniyur, where the road was dug up last month and is still awaiting tarring. Vehicle users find it a Herculean task to drive their vehicles here. We request that the Greater Chennai Corporation (GCC) relay the road without any further delay.
